

ABOUT WSA

The Wisconsin Soybean Association (WSA) is a grassroots, farmer-led, membership organization. Since the soybean checkoff is prohibited by law from lobbying, WSA works to ensure that sound policies are in place to enhance the future of soybean farming in Wisconsin. WSA relies on voluntary membership dues to fund their advocacy efforts.

YOUR VOICE IN MADISON

Grassroots advocacy is at the core of WSA's mission. Our volunteer, farmer leaders serve as the voice of soybean farmers in Madison and Washington, D.C. WSA advocacy efforts are supported by its advocacy team, through lobbying support and by the American Soybean Association on federal policy issues.

A MEMBERSHIP THAT BENEFITS

Less than 10 percent of Wisconsin soybean farmers are members. Imagine what we could do with all Wisconsin soybean farmers speaking with one voice. Your membership helps put boots on the ground and in front of policy makers year-round to ensure Wisconsin's soybean farmers have a voice in decisions that affect their freedom to operate and their profitability.
